Patent Interference No. 105,503 (MPT)
(Technology Center 1600)

REDECLARATION - Bd. R. 203(c)

Michael P. Tierney, Administrative Patent Judge.

As set forth in the Order (Paper No. 18), mailed concurrent with this Redecoration, a conference call was held on November 16, 2006. During the conference both parties informed the Board that Conzelmann's corresponding claim 2 was patentably distinct from Count 1, the sole count in interference. Specifically, as explained in Hong's Motions List (Paper No. 17), Count 1 is directed to paramyxoviruses whereas Conzelmann claim 2 specifies a psuedogene region not found in paramyxovirus genomes. Accordingly, the Board redeclares the interference for the sole purpose of identifying Conzelmann claim 2 as not corresponding to Count 1. The count and accorded benefit remain the same as set forth in the Notice Declaring Interference

1 (Paper No. 1), but are reproduced below for the convenience of the reader.
